Accelerating Data Management on Google Cloud Platform with Deloitte Managed Services

Modern IT organizations have a lot on their plate. Businesses are demanding more reliable data, there is an increasing focus on cloud modernization, and the C-Suite is prioritizing data governance to drive deeper trust with the business and their clients. To increase business and IT alignment on strategic priorities, many organizations have redefined their IT roadmaps to outsource technology hosting and support.

For organizations that have determined Google Cloud Platform as a central component of their strategic roadmap, Deloitte provides the ability to host Informatica technology on their preferred cloud vendor. Deloitte helps businesses to achieve competitive advantage and accelerate time-to-value with a leading-class platform implemented and managed by an award-winning System Integrator.

Informatica MDM on Google Cloud, powered by Deloitte helps businesses:

Launch their cloud data management program.

Our end-to-end solution can help organizations accelerate their data management journey, whether their focus is data quality, mastering data or data governance.

Shift to managed services.

We help organizations shift the management, upgrades, and support of their Informatica environment to our end-to-end platform of software and services. We offer a fully managed solution for maintenance, monitoring, disaster recovery, and security.

Maximize the value of Informatica.

Achieving business transformation is made faster and easier with our next-gen, AI-driven solution that enables businesses to focus on maximizing value rather than managing the environment.

Collaborate with a leading Global Systems Integrator.

Deloitte helps businesses to identify, understand, and manage their data as a strategic enterprise asset. Our holistic approach, which includes advising, implementing, and operating components, is centered around delivering and fully leveraging business value. Deloitte has delivered more than 200 successful Master Data with Informatica, Management projects and was named Informatica's 2017 and 2018 Global Systems Integrator Partner of the Year.

The Deloitte and Informatica Alliance

The Deloitte and Informatica alliance combines Deloitte's experience in information management with Informatica's industry-leading software.
